is an elected Municr Councillor of that Council.

2. In the Case of the Tanjore Municr Council, the Municipal Councillors were Consulted informally about the suitable Candidate for the Vice-President-ship & Mr. C. Sheshadriengar, Retired Asstt. Comr, was appointed as Non Official Vice-President in accordance with the unanimous opinion of the Municr Councillors to hold office till the expiry of the term of office of the present Councillors. In that Connection, Govt reserved for future Consideration the question of allowing Municr Councils to elect their own Vice-Presidents.

RA 830/28-7-13 3 This is a case in which even the power of electing the Vice-President may be given, as the result of election is pretty surely to be the same as the present nomination, in view of the influence and popularity of Mr C Vasudeva Rao Though the Dy Comr does not appear to have Consulted the Municr Council informally, in selecting the Candidate, such a Consultation will, without doubt, only Confirm the Dy Comr's Selection

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 270-7/ Ml. 385-12-4 dated 9th July 1913 inviting reference to Dasara Representative Assembly Subjects Nos. 230 & 231 of 1912 about the appointment of non-official gentlemen as Vice-Presidents of Municipalities, and enquiring whether I could submit any practical proposals in the matter, I have the honor to state that I feel quite convinced of the desirability of Non-Official Vice-Presidents being appointed to Municipalities, provided that non-official gentlemen possessing sufficient capacity for work, willingness and decent station in life are available.

Extract C

2. Now, to consider the Chikmagalur Municipality, there are are only two retired officers, viz.:-

(1- Mr. Magal Ramachandra Rao, Retired Assistant Commissioner;

(2) Mr. H.Kesavachar, Retired Amildar;

but both, I should think are too old for the place.

3. Turning to some of the other non-official members, I find that most of them who may be considered as fit, are either lawyers or coffee planters.

4. The lawyers amidst their onerous professional duties can hardly find sufficient time to do proper justice to the appointment.

5. The coffee planters on the other hand though they may have to attend to their Estate work for about 2 or 3 months in the year during the Coffee Season have more time to spare which they could devote to Municipal duties. But if their estates are very near Chikmagalur, they could certainly look after the duties of the Vice-Presidentship without prejudice to the work. I have given the matter my careful consideration and beg to propose Mr. C.Vasudeva Rao (Coffee Planter) for the Non-Official Vice-Presidentship of the Chikmagalur Head Quarter Municipality. I have sounded Mr. Vasudeva Rao in the matter, and he is willing.

6. Next as regards the other Municipalities in this District, I shall make a further communication on the subject after due enquiry.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

N Muddappa
